Highland Park 12 Years Single Malt

(40%, OB, 2023)

The Highland Park 12 Year Old single malt is generally well-regarded as a balanced, "all-rounder" Scotch offering notes of heather honey, citrus, and a gentle, aromatic peat smoke. It is frequently recommended as an excellent entry-level peated whisky.

Reviewers praise its complexity and balance, particularly for its price point and age statement. It is often described as having a unique "heather peat" smoke profile, which is less medicinal or iodine-heavy than Islay whiskies, making it approachable for those new to peat.
